U. S. GRAND JURY TO WET THE STREETS

It Adjourned Yesterday Afternoon After a Brief Session Here.

Alderman J. V. Greif Indicted in a Pension Case—Denies the Charge.

POST OFFICE CLERK WAS INDICTED.

The federal grand jury was in session but a short time yesterday, but it returned some rather interesting indictments late in the afternoon.

Alderman J. V. Greif, one of the best known citizens in Paducah, and a Confederate veteran of considerable literary renown, was indicted on a charge of alleged fraudulent affixing of his signature and seal as a notary public to an application for pension for a colored woman named McClure. It seems her husband attempted to secure a pension, but died before he succeeded.

She then took up the work where he left off, and it seems there was a claim of some description to which several witnesses had to swear. It is alleged that James Woodward, the colored pension agent, had the witnesses sign the paper, and telephoned Mr. Greif to come and swear them to the statements. The indictments charges that when he got there they had gone, and he affixed his seal and signed it as a notary public just as if they had been there and sworn to it. The witnesses, five in number, it is said, swear that they did not see Mr. Greif and did not swear to the document despite the fact his signature shows that they did.

Mr. Greif was seen and stated that he knew nothing about the charge except what he had heard, but that he had never done such a thing as attest signatures and oaths unless they were made. He thought it possible that some one had made a fraudulent claim to get a pension, and being caught up with attempted to get out of it by claiming they did not make the affidavit, and were not sworn, which is the only way they could involve him in anything of the kind.

Mr. Greif's friends are certain that this is about the size of it.

An indictment was returned against Samuel Sweeney for stealing a registered letter containing $10. Sweeney was a clerk in the postoffice at Boyleville, in Graves county several miles from Mayfield, and one day took a registered letter addressed to N. D. Barnett from John Cook, of Pineville, Ark. The young man was not a sworn clerk but held to distribute the mails. He took the letter out of the mail sack, it is alleged, and placed it among other letters, saying that he would attend to it later. One witness swore that he saw Sweeney place the letter in his pocket. The letter could never be found and the boy's father finally paid over to Barnett the $10 and the matter was left to stand until reported to the authorities who have acted as above stated. Sweeney soon left that locality but is now back at his home. It also developed in the investigation that about $30 worth of stamps had been misplaced but were afterwards found by Sweeney.

HE WENT FREE.

Danville, Ky., April 29.—The jury in the case against Walter Denham, a prominent young coal dealer charged with acting in collusion with Leck Logan, colored, who stole a number of hogs from farmers near town, this morning bought in a verdict of not guilty, after being out only seven minutes.

A Sprinkling Ordinance is Now Being Drawn by the City Attorney.

A Big Improvement Plan That is to Be Sprung Shortly in the Council.

IT INVOLVES A BIG OUTLAY OF MONEY

The Sun is pleased to find that the city officials are being aroused to their duty towards the public, and there is now being drawn up by the city attorney, for presentation at the next regular meeting of the councilmanic board, an ordinance providing for systematic street sprinkling in Paducah. Some of the members of the council are convinced that to sprinkle the streets at a regular assessment per foot will enable the streets to be sprinkled cheaper than it can now be done by the people themselves, will preserve the streets, prevent dust, and conduce to improved sanitary conditions.

It is proposed to sprinkle Third street from Monroe to the end, Jefferson and Broadway from First street to Twelfth, Court street to Ninth, Washington to Sixth or Seventh, and all the cross streets between Washington and Monroe. It is not known what the fate of the ordinance will be in the council, but a strong pull will be made to have it passed.

After it is passed bids will be asked and the city will let the contract to whoever bids the lowest, and then assess property owners so much per property foot front.

Another public improvement matter that is to be brought up in the council and agitated in the near future is the issuance of $250,000 or $300,000 in bonds for needed city improvements. This question will have to be submitted to a vote of the people, and several of the councilmen have expressed the belief that the people will favor it as the only means of ever getting the improvements that are needed in Paducah. It is desired to begin work on it early, so as to have the people pretty well worked up over it by the November election.

The proposition, should the bonds be issued, is to pave with brick or asphalt about 50 blocks of streets at a cost not to exceed $4,000 or $5,000 a block, a total of about $250,000. With the remainder, should the issue be $300,000 a new market house and city hospital are to be built. The present plan is to improve Broadway to the railroad crossing, Jefferson street to Ninth or Tenth, Third street from Jefferson to the bridge, Fifth street from the N. C. and St. L. depot to Trimble, thence to Sixth and the Illinois Central freight depot, Court to Seventh, Washington to Sixth, and a number of cross streets.

This is the plan advocated by at least a few of the councilmen at present. It is not known how the council will take to the proposition, but it is not believed any objection can be raised to allowing the people to vote on it.

LOST A COUSIN.

MR. E. L. BLACKWELL, A PITTSBURG VICTIM, A RELATIVE OF ATTORNEY RAY.

Attorney James B. Ray has returned from Bardwell, after a several days' absence.

Mr. E. L. Blackwell of Boyle, Miss., who was among the City of Pittsburgh's victims, was a cousin of Attorney Ray. A child of Mr. Blackwell has not yet been found. Relatives are now among the searchers at the wreck.

WILL MEET FRIDAY

Members of the State Christian Endeavor to Hold Convention.

The Program Will be one of the Best Ever Offered in Kentucky by the Society.

LOCAL DELEGATES TO GO THERE.

A number of local Christian Endeavorers contemplate going to the state convention this week at Cynthiana, beginning Friday, May 2, and lasting three days.

This is the first reunion that the Endeavorers have had since the convention at Covington, and in many respects it promises to be the best in years. The Christian Endeavorers on the prospects ahead are having visions of spring chickens and the beef trust prices have no terror for them.

Mr. Clarence E. Eberman, national field secretary, will be heard for the first time in Kentucky; the music, rendered by a large choir, will be under the direction of Mr. Louis Evans, of Chicago, while Miss Virginia Hewett Shafer of Louisville will sing several of her best solos, among which are Gounod's "Oh Divine Redeemer," and "I Will Lay Me Down in Peace," by Ellis.

The work among the state prisons will be aptly treated, while Miss Mary A. Finch, of Helena Station, superintendent of the junior branch of the work, will furnish what is to some the best part of the program in a study of little children.

Aside from the religious spirit there is a social feature in these reunions.

The railroads have granted a round trip rate of one and one-third fares on the certificate plan, and it is important that each visitor should secure a certificate for return when purchasing his ticket.

Mrs. Rowena Rivers, of Paducah, is on the program twice, once in a paper on prison work at Eddyville.

Mrs. Rivers, of the First Christian church and Mr. Claude Johnson, of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, are two of the delegates who will go from Paducah.

—Mr. F. M. Fisher today purchased the remainder of the George Bernhard stock of shoes, to be shipped to Tiptonville, Tenn., to the big merchandise store owned by him and Mr. Charles Brower.

GETS A PROMOTION

Mr. N J Dilday Retires From State Office of the Equitable at Louisville—He Will Travel in Three States for the Home Office—A Handsome Increase in Salary.

HAS MADE A NOTABLE SUCCESS.

Mr. N. J. Dilday, formerly one of the proprietors of the Daily Standard here, and for the past five years of the firm of Dilday and Powell, state managers of the Equitable Life Assurance company of New York, has just received a splendid promotion, having retired from the state firm and accepted a fine position at a handsome salary with the home office, with territory in Kentucky, Indiana, and Illinois.

Mr. Henry J. Powell, his partner, will hereafter be state agent, with exclusive control of the state business, and an increase in salary, while Mr. Dilday has one of the most lucrative as well as responsible positions the company affords, covering three states. This will be good news to Mr. Dilday's many friends here. He left Paducah five years ago and became one of the state managers for the Equitable at Louisville. Although the business was new to him, he entered it with indomitable will and invincible energy, and has succeeded. It is understood from a good source that Mr. Dilday's business has netted him $50,000, during the five years he has been in Louisville.

His new position is a salaried one, paying nearly $10,000 a year.

Mr. Dilday's friends feel confident that he will come up to expectations, and be rewarded with further advancement.

Another young man formerly in the newspaper business in Paducah who has risen rapidly in insurance circles is Mr. Lothair Smith, formerly bookkeeper of Mr. Dilday's paper, the Standard, who is now cashier of the state office, next to the highest position in the state.

SPECIAL TRAIN.

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER WALLACE COMING TO-MORROW.

Mr. J. F. Wallace, the assistant general manager of the Illinois Central road, will arrive in the city from Chicago via Fulton tomorrow and will leave at 7:45 a. m. on a special train en route east to Louisville. It is not known what his business here is but he will not remain in Paducah long. He will probably stop over on his return trip to inspect the Cairo branch and see how the work is progressing.

Mr. J. W. Higgins, the superintendent of transportation of the Illinois Central, will arrive in Paducah at 8 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from the St. Louis division. The local officials have received no instructions for a move yet and it is not known when he will leave.

NEW CABLE.

THE EAST TENNESSEE HAS JUST COMPLETED ANOTHER.

The East Tennessee Telephone company has just completed a 400 wire cable that runs to Thirteenth and Tennessee streets. It is over a mile long, and takes up one hundred wires at Ninth street, Jackson, Tenth and Tennessee and Thirteenth and Tennessee streets. The cost of such cables is about $1 a foot, or $5,000 for the one now being put in.

GOT $1000 DAMAGES

Chas W Young Mail Clerk won His Suit in Federal Court.

The Greif Pension Case Was Continued—Ephram Shaw Fined $400 For Raising a Bill.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE LOCAL COURTS

FEDERAL COURT.

Federal court opened this morning with the Charles W. Young case still on trial. Young asked $10,000 damages against the Illinois Central for injuries sustained in a railroad wreck at Kuttawa while he was running as mail clerk, and went to the jury at 10:30 this morning. Shortly before noon the jury returned with a verdict for $1,000 in favor of the plaintiff. Young, who is former Congressman Stone's son-in-law, was injured about the face and one eye was permanently injured, besides facial injuries. Attorney W. M. Smith, of Louisville, acted for the plaintiff and Attorneys John Gates, of Princeton, and Colonel Q. Q. Quigley, of the city, represented the railroad. The wreck in which he was hurt is the one in which Engineer Barney Keegan was killed.

In the case of George M. Jackson against J. E. Dupoyster an amended petition was tendered.

The case against J. V. Greif, for alleged making a false affidavit in a pension claim case, was continued and the defendant placed under a $500 bond, which he gave.

Harve Batrum, for illegal whiskey selling, was fined $100 and sentenced to thirty days in the county jail.

The case against James E. Woodward, the colored pension claim agent, was continued. Both the Greif and Woodward cases will probably be tried as near together as possible as they are closely connected.

Ephraim Shaw, the man who raised a $1 bill to $5 and passed it on some Wickliffe people, pleaded guilty and was fined $400.

This afternoon the case of Edward Lagenbach and others against John Moore and others is being tried. The suit was brought to secure the rights of a lease on mineral lands in Livingston county, both sides claiming to have the legal lease. The lands are considered valuable and both sides are working hard to secure the legal rights to operate the same.

Ephraim Shaw, of Cadiz, was indicted for passing a raised bill on Miss Nora France and W. H. Sparks of Wickliffe. The bill was raised from $1 to $5 and the arrest was made several months ago by Special U. S. Agent McAdams.

Joe Dockens, of Hickman, was indicted for selling liquor without a license.

David Mallory, of Mayfield, Ky., for selling liquor without a license. Harve Batrum, of Benton, for illegal whiskey selling.

James A. Woodward, colored, city, a pension claim agent, indicted for having secured witnesses to make a false affidavit in pension claim. Woodward was arrested and jailed at last term of court on a similar charge.

POLICE COURT.

Zonie Moore, a negress, was fined $20 and costs for cursing and using vulgar language on the streets. Heavy fines is the means that has been adopted to stop such conduct. It is an every day occurrence in some localities, that negroes, both male and female, walk about in a half intoxicated condition, using obscene language on the streets, and the authorities are

Capt. Phillips Will Tear it up for old Iron and Other Material

Another Body Found Near the Wreck Yesterday—Reward for Pennsylvanians

RIVER NEWS OF LOCAL INTEREST.

Captain Dana Scott, one of the clerks on the ill-fated City of Pittsburgh, was in the city today and left on the Dick Fowler for the scene of the wreck. Captain Phillips has bought from the insurance company the bulk of the boat, and it is understood will tear it up for the iron and other material that can be gotten out of it.

The only body found yesterday was that of Mrs. A. Kupferschmidt, of Cincinnati, who with about $1,500 in jewelry and a large sum of money was on her way to Memphis. She was burned to death while clinging to the wheel house, and the body was found near the wreck and identified by her brother by a ring on one of the fingers. A reward of $200 has been offered for recovery of the bodies of Messrs. Hunter and Magill, of Tideoute, Pa. Friends are still about the wreck waiting for the finding of the bodies. The remains found yesterday were taken to Cairo and sent from there to Cincinnati for burial.

Captain Joe Fowler says that for some reason it is almost impossible to get crews for the Evansville packets. The negroes will not work, and he thinks if a few of them were arrested for vagrancy and made to work about thirty days for the city for nothing, they would be willing to work thereafter for the steamboats for good wages.

It is said that a large quantity of fireworks was stored in the hold of the steamer City of Pittsburgh, but was put off at Paducah. It is also said that the crew unloaded a small quantity of dynamite at Paducah. It is regarded as fortunate that none of the explosives were on the vessel at the time she burned.

Captain Moses Irwin, a well known river man who began his river career in 1833 as a cabin boy on the Ohio river, and retired 35 years ago, the Woodford being his last boat, died at Louisville Sunday. Up to ten years ago he was interested in the New Albany and Portland ferry company.

The Mississippi whaler barges were unloaded at Port Chalmette recently by the elevator process and proved successful. This is the first time wheat has been taken out of a river barge by an elevator, and nearly all barges will be unloaded by the same process hereafter.

The Harry Brown this morning passed down for Memphis with 29 coal boats, three model barges and three fuels. Engineer Charles Johnson, of the city, left her fifteen miles above and came down in a yawl to spend a short time with his family and friends.

Observations taken at 7 a. m. River 12.8 on the gauge, a fall of 0.7 in last 24 hours. Wind southwest, a light breeze. Weather, raining and warmer. Rainfall last 24 hours, 0.36 inches. Temperature 62.

Pell, Observer.

Pilot Tom Dauley, who died in the insane asylum at Evansville a few days ago, was for many years a well known lower Ohio river pilot and was for a long time a pilot on the packets of the Louisville and Evansville Mail company. He was 65 years old.

Pittsburg dispatch: The river coal combine received official notice of the sinking of the Monterey, which happened at Glassport Saturday. Efforts to raise the boat will be made. No lives were lost, but the damages will amount to about $3,000.

The City of Pittsburg was not an entirely new boat. Her cabin and engines came off the Anchor Line steamer City of New Orleans, and a new hull was built under it at Marietta, O. The old boat was better than the new one.

The Clyde came in this morning from Tennessee river with a good trip and went down to Brookport and Joppa to unload.

The Charleston is getting a good trip this afternoon for her departure at 5 p. m. for Tennessee river.

Captain Ottoman Bauer and Mr. Clarence Coker, of Golconda, are in the city on business.

Captain J. F. Browinski, of Joppa, Ill., was in the city this morning on business.

At the rate the Ohio is falling the Joe B. Williams will hardly reach Cairo.

The Dick Fowler had a good trip today for Cairo and left about on time.

One of the Parker's barges is out on the docks today for repairs.

LOUISIANA BANKERS.

The Second Annual Meeting Began at New Orleans.

Session to Last Two Days—Many Prominent Men There.

New Orleans, La., April 29—Representative bankers and business men from all parts of the state were present today at the opening of the second annual meeting of the Louisiana Bankers' Association. The gathering was called to order by President James T. Hayden and the opening prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. B. M. Palmer. After an address of welcome by Mayor Capdeville the convention listened to an address by President M. J. Sanders, of the Progressive Union, on "The Port of New Orleans and the Future of the State." The opening session concluded with the reports of the officers and the various committees. One of the principal matters to receive the attention of the convention, which will be in session two days, is the proposed law to give operation to the principle of leaving property in trust. The committee on legislation has prepared a special report on the subject and a plan of campaign to secure the enactment of the measure will be outlined.

MEETING OF AIR

BRAKE BUILDERS.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 29—Nearly every railroad in the United States and Canada is represented at the annual meeting of the Air Brakemen's Association, which began here today. The object of the association is to exchange opinions regarding the various makes of air brakes in use. During the three days of the convention several papers will be read on subjects pertaining to methods used in installing safety devices on rolling stock.

BODY AND BRAINS.

Whether the brains of men are being developed at the expense of the bodies is not a question that we can settle, but there is no question that there are many individual cases where the body is weaker than it ought to be.

To produce big healthy brains and big healthy bodies take Scott's Emulsion. Childhood is the time to commence.

The effort of Scott's Emulsion is to make nature do her best with the materials on hand. It checks all those little weaknesses and faults of nourishment which result in imperfect development.

Beautiful Thoughts

The sweet, pure breath of the babe is suggestive of innocence and health. Some children are as light and delicate as the modest flower, some are strong and bright, some are frail and sickly.

A mother's yearning for children is inseparable from a love of the beautiful, and it behooves every woman to bring the sweetest influence to bear on the subject of her maternity.

The Twelfth Triennial Session Began There to Last Several Days.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 29—Upwards of eight hundred delegates who come from all parts of the United States and Canada are gathered in Los Angeles for the twelfth triennial session of the supreme court of the Independent Order of Foresters. At the opening session in Blanchard's hall today the visitors were cordially welcomed by Mayor Snyder, to whose address response was made by the supreme chief ranger of the order, Dr. Cronhytelha, of Toronto. The work of formal organization occupied the greater part of the opening session. The regular business of the convention will be taken up tomorrow and is expected to occupy three or four days as several matters of importance are to be brought up for consideration and action. The reports of the various officers will show the affairs of the order to be in good condition, a gratifying gain in membership and finances having been made during the last two years. The report of the secretary, John A. McGillivray, shows the total membership to be more than 2,000,000, located throughout the known world. During the last year the order has disbursed more than $1,500,000 in benefits.

LIGHTNING STRIKES.

BARN BURNED IN THE COUNTY YESTERDAY DURING STORM.

Mr. William King, who resides about a mile from Grahamville, this county, had his barn destroyed by fire yesterday morning. Lightning struck it and set fire to it, killing three horses. The structure was a total loss, with its contents, about 400 bushels of corn. The loss will amount to about $800.

The rehandling house at Calvert City was also destroyed by fire, originating from a bolt of lightning, loss about $5,000.

THE MOST REMARKABLE GUN IN THE WORLD JUST NEAR COMPLETION.

Troy, N. Y., April 29—The authorities at Watervliet Arsenal expect to complete work on the sixteen inch gun to be placed at Fort Hamilton, in New York harbor, by June 1. The gun, which has been in the course of construction about four years, will be first sent to Sandy Hook for proving. Last week the war department decided to mount the gun on a disappearing carriage.

Its first trial is eagerly awaited by all the gunmakers of the world. It is claimed the gun will hurl a shell 21 miles. This is disputed by the Krupps, who claim it will not throw the shot more than 15 miles. In order to discharge the gun it will require 1,000 pounds of powder and a 3,000 pound projectile. The gun, when completed, will weigh 150 tons.

Mr. Charles Earhart, the well known insurance man, has turned poet. He has in the last issue of the Masonic Home Journal a long composition which he wrote at odd times bearing on Masonic matters, and which has elicited many compliments from the craft. Mr. Earhart is a master of Paducah Lodge of Masons, and is one of the brightest and most energetic of them.

The wind played a strange freak during the storm Friday night on The Kentucky theater. The walls are capped with tiling, which drains the water off. The tiling look like halves of water pipes, and are held down by strong iron bands, firmly imbedded in the wall. Despite this, however, the wind picked one of them out, wrenched it from its strong fastenings and carried it away without moving any of the others.

Sol Smith Russell, the great actor who died in Washington yesterday and who was one of the most grotesque and one of the drollest characters on the American stage, made his first appearance in Cairo, Ill., over thirty years ago. Then he was a poor actor without fame or fortune, and the great ability that subsequently manifested itself had not yet been recognized by the public. Mr. Russell, during his life, frequently made mention of his first appearance at Cairo, and always had a warm spot in his heart for our Egyptian neighbor.

License Inspector Ezell has some funny requests made. Daily some one comes to him making inquiry about various things, but the most unusual information was asked the other day by a young man who wanted to run a gambling machine.

"What will be the license on a gambling machine?" he asked.

"A gambling machine?" asked the officer.

"Yes sir, something on the order of a nickel in the slot machine."

"Well," rejoined the inspector, "I don't believe there is any license at all charged on them, but you had better not start one," he concluded as the man started away with a glad-some expression on his face, "unless you have plenty of money to pay your way out of jail."

The man probably tumbled, as he didn't start the machine.

It is about time the police were giving "move on" orders to the gypsies who infest the city. There is no telling how many of them there are, and they all look alike to the average person. It is said they were run out of Cairo, and it is not astonishing if they conducted themselves there as they have been doing here. They walk into stores and take possession, importuning everybody they can reach to let them "tell their fortune." Their "fortunes" are fakes, like most all others, and their methods nothing but robbery. When ordered out, or not favored with a piece of money, for one of their fake palm readings, they use the vilest language possible, and it makes no difference whether there are any ladies present or not. The men do not make incursions to the city, but the dirty, gaudily dressed women make repeated visits to the business part of town and become general nuisances. It is time they were gently boosted elsewhere.

Harry Turner, the Louisville boy who was taken in custody Saturday by the police on suspicion of being a runaway, is unanimously conceded by the police to be the slickest youngster they ever came across. Turner has been in a number of minstrels as a song and dance specialist, and has seen a great deal of the country. He talks about great actors and their plays as if he had been intimately associated with them for years. Yesterday after the police had taken him before Judge Sanders to be questioned, he convinced them that he was prepared to make his own way, and they released him. His gratitude was very sincere, and repaying to one of the private offices he gave the crowd, including Judge Sanders, an informal entertainment, in which he was the star, singing and dancing for quite awhile. Judge Sanders says he is the best boy performer and singer he ever saw or heard, and the judge is a good authority. Turner was told he could remain here as long as he liked and behaved himself. He left saying he intended to black boots until the carnival.

EXTRACTING GOLD

A NEW METHOD HAS BEEN DISCOVERED BY AN OREGON MAN.

Salem, Ore., April 29.—A new method for extracting gold from base ores has been developed by a resident of this city. After years of effort the process has been perfected and lately practical demonstrations of its success have been given. The process is said to have yielded three times as much gold as could have been obtained by the usual smelting process. Briefly, the process separates the gold from the ore, which is put through various solutions after crushing. After settling for twelve hours the liquid is skimmed like cream, the gold being taken off the top where it rises like a thick skum. It is claimed by the discoverer that the process matures latent gold, which cannot be secured by other processes. It is believed by experts that the new process will greatly increase the amount saved, especially from ores of a low grade.

WHIST LEAGUE

FAIR DELEGATES FROM MANY CITIES ASSEMBLE IN BOSTON.

Boston, Mass., April 29.—When the fifth annual tournament and congress of the Woman's Whist League began today at the Hotel Somerset the large assembly room was thronged with fair devotees of the game from all parts of the country. Members were in attendance from Cincinnati, Philadelphia, New York, Chicago, Minneapolis, Milwaukee, St. Louis and numerous other cities. Play for the Toledo trophy, the Brooklyn trophy, the Philadelphia cup and other prizes emblematic of the championship commenced auspiciously and from all indications the tournament, which is to continue through the week, will be the most successful ever held by the league.

COAL TRUST

QUESTION OF ISSUING $6,000,000 IN BONDS TO BE VOTED ON.

New York, April 29.—In financial circles considerable interest is manifested in the special meeting of the stockholders of the Pittsburg Coal company at Jersey City today. The purpose of the meeting is to vote on a proposition to issue $6,000,000 worth of gold bonds bearing 5 per cent interest to meet the cost of additional lands purchased recently. The Union Trust company of Pittsburg has agreed to take the entire issue in bonds of $25,000 units. The explanation given for the issue is that it became necessary to purchase large tracts of land at enhanced values and that the sinking fund of the company was not equal to the excessive and unexpected strain.

EMBALMED BEEF

TRIALS TODAY RESULTING FROM THE RAISE IN PRICE.

St. Paul, Minn., April 28.—The local representatives of the big packing houses of Chicago and St. Paul who were arrested last week on complaint of the local meat dealers, who charged them with selling meat preserved by means of borax injections and solution, were arraigned in court today for trial. The decision of the cases depends on the efforts of the defense to prove that borax is not injurious. The prosecution arises from the dissatisfaction of the retailers over the dictatorial action of the packers in raising the price of meat and the result of the trials is awaited with much interest.

Paine's Celery Compound

Is the Only Medicine That Can Promptly and Permanently Banish All Wasting and Dangerous Diseases.

It Restores Lost Health When Physicians Pronounce Your Case Incurable.

If, in spring time, sick people— young and old—act with promptness, wisdom and decision, suffering, agony and misery would never be carried into the summer months.

To delay the work of banishing disease, regulating the nerves, purifying the blood and restoring perfect digestion is a serious mistake.

When the blood is sluggish, impure and poisoned, when the nervous system is unbalanced, when digestion is deranged, and the appetite poor and variable, be assured your condition is critical, and calls for instant attention before the summer months bring additional dangers.

At this time the use of Paine's Celery Compound will do a marvelous work for every run down, sick, and diseased man and woman.

Its life giving work first commences with the blood, which is made clean and pure; then the nerves are quickly set in order, digestive vigor is fully restored, the appetite is made natural, sleep is refreshing and the desponding heart is made light and joyous.

It is well to bear in mind that Paine's Celery Compound owes its origin to the most distinguished physician that this American continent ever produced, and his marvellous prescription is publicly endorsed by our best and ablest physicians.

If all sufferers who have been disappointed in the past will promptly start with Paine's Celery Compound, they will be astonished and delighted with the speed with which this wonderful remedy is able to call a halt to wasting and dangerous diseases. It is now making tens of thousands well and strong, and fitting them to enjoy the summer months which, to the well and strong, are pleasurable and happy.

REPUBLICAN WINS

JUDGE PARKER DECIDES AN INTERESTING MAGISTERIAL CONTEST AT LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Ky., April 29.—Circuit Judge Parker holds that J. T. Farmer, Republican, was elected over J. C. Herndon, Democrat, for magistrate in the Fourth district. The case created great interest because it hinged on a delicate point in the election law. The Democratic commissioners threw out all votes stamped both under the device of Claude Chinn, running as independent candidate for county clerk, and under the Republican device. As the Republicans had no candidate for county clerk, Judge Parker held that the intention of the voter was clear, and that the ballots should be counted. This elected Farmer.

DAILY THOUGHT.

BEEF TRUST REFLECTIONS.

The beef trust—how formidable it sounds! One would infer from the wild ravings of the yellow press and their country satellites that the base and cunning money-barons have cornered all the cattle in the universe and charge an admission price just to look at it. The people devour their steak and roast with unwonted relish, as they read of the beef trust in the daily paper and sigh with pathetic longing as they imagine it may be their last. Even the hash bids fair to become a fashionable luxury.

But it is a funny thing how "trusts" manage to spring up so quickly nowadays. It seems never to occur to the average mind that if men control something they do not produce, somebody else is as much to blame as they. None of the necessities of life are produced by the trusts. Capitalists and dealers must buy before they can sell. Whether it is sugar, flour, wool, cotton or meat, the first man who has anything to do with its appearance on the market is the man who raises it. He can sell it where or to whom he likes. If he chooses to sell it to the men in a "trust," because he gets a good price, he has simply to pocket his gains and let the "trust" face the wrath of the people. Of course he shouldn't do this. He should find out what the indigent consumer is able to pay for it, and sell it to some man he knows will dispose of it for what the purchaser is able to pay. This is a free and benevolent world, and the men who raise what we eat and wear should be philanthropists, with no thought save for their fellow men. To sell goods to a trust makes them particeps criminis.

In this meat business there is no reason why a vast majority of the people should be affected. In Paducah we have no fears, for we know the supply of cows is inexhaustible. We are daily reminded of it by what we can see. We can step into the yard most any time and find us a cow, and it would be easy to drive her into the back yard, if she hadn't already been there, and convert her into beef, which is the way we would prefer to have our cows served in Paducah.

But to get back to the trust question, there is nothing to compel the farmer or stock raiser to sell to anyone but the butcher, at a price that will enable us all to eat beef. The farmer or stock raiser being a philanthropist, like the beef-eating public, should dispose of his cattle to the butcher at a price that will enable the butcher, who is doubtless also a philanthropist, to put it on the market at a low figure, or, better still, to give it away. If the farmer or stock raiser does not choose to do this, and so far forgets his duty to his fellow man as to be prompted by sordid avarice to regulate the prices by what the market offers to pay, instead of what the philanthropic public is willing or able to pay, he puts himself on an equal footing with the inexorable fiend who is rich and becomes part of a "trust."

The trusts must go. Unlimited financial success has become an unpardonable sin with the multitudes. The working man must live, and what he lives on must be offered to him at a price he is able to pay, not what the man who sells it is able to get for it. The custom of labor organizations fixing the price of labor at what they want, instead of what a person is able to pay or have it done elsewhere for, can never be applied to those who do not work for a living. The man of money should live for the man who hasn't. He has no right to buy things and sell them at his own price. He must consult the pocket of the public. In the first place, he has no moral right to have dead oodles of money when there are so many of us who have none. If he has it anyhow, he has no right to invest it so as to get more. He ought to be satisfied.

If he buys up all the cats in Christendom, and pays for them, he has violated a sacred law of the land, for he will then own all the cats, and nobody will be able to get cats unless he pays him his price, for cats do not grow on trees nowadays, and it is entirely out of the question to expect people to do without them.

There is one thing certain, however. The beef trust will never touch us. After the cows have fattened on our grass and flowers, we can sell them for a fortune, buy a few more brick streets, divide up the rest and everybody will be able to pay that $1.85 tax.

UNWELCOME GUESTS.

The Mayfield papers do not attempt to excuse the rowdism of some of the Mayfield toughs who come to Paducah every Sunday to have their little spree. Yesterday's Messenger truthfully says:

"The many complimentary advertisements under glaring headlines in the Monday Paducah papers almost weekly, giving accounts of free-for-all fights, etc., is easily explained when it is known that every Sunday from twenty-five to fifty of our tough, would-be bullies hide themselves off to the capital of McCracken with no other intention than to fire upon river water (?) and proceed to take the town by storm and make 'Rome howl.' Patience ceases to be a virtue after a while, and it is not strange to the thoughtful that the city authorities of Paducah should get tired of such practices; nor is it strange that so many of our boys pay heavy fines or land in the city bastille."

This is the proper way to look at it. A great deal could be said by the Paducah papers that is not said for fear of hurting our neighbor's feelings, and the Mayfield toughs do a great deal here that is never published in the papers. If the Mayfield papers can effect a reform among her rowdy element she will have achieved one thing that the Paducah police have never succeeded in doing, and if they can break up these regular weekly visits to us they will confer a favor that will be appreciated.

It is due Councilman Hummel, who has been accused of deriving benefit from contracts with the city by reason of being the local agent of a company that furnishes bonds to city officials, to say that he derives no benefit from any contract with the city. The only contract that exists in connection with the bonds that are given in his company is between the official and the company. The city pays out no money, and figures in it in no way. Of course Mr. Hummel's official position may give him a "pull," but it is no worse to utilize this pull and cop out a few commissions on bonds than to use a pull for the purpose of unloading a lot of inferior gravel on the city at a good price.

The New York Evening Post, speaking of the request of a Mississippi paper for more information as to the Democracy of the new Memphis daily paper, says: "Right here the trouble comes in—the question of brand. We have the 'Bryan or bust' 16 to 1 sort, 'the Louisiana sugar protective,' 'the imperial paramount,' 'the German steel and iron,' 'the Francis-Bailey Standard oil,' 'the Jones round bale cotton trust,' 'the gold bug traitors.' How can we shake all these out of the same box?"

A DELIGHTFUL EVENING.

THE CHESS CLUB LAST EVENING CELEBRATED ITS FIRST ANNIVERSARY.

The smoker of the Chess, Checker and Whist club at the club rooms over Lendler and Lydon's last night was a most delightful event, and was enjoyed by about 200 persons.

A brief address was made by Mr. W. F. Bradshaw, Jr., secretary, stating among other things that the occasion was the celebration of the club's first anniversary. There was music by Colonel H. H. Hobson and others and light refreshments were served.

ARMOUR OPENING.

ABOUT A THOUSAND PEOPLE VISIT THE NEW WAREHOUSE ON FIRST STREET.

The new warehouse of Armour and Co., on First street, near Broadway, was thrown open to the public yesterday afternoon and night, and about 1,000 people during the day called to enjoy the hospitality of the concern. Guests were shown about the building, and served with light refreshments, and everybody enjoyed the occasion.

Manager E. T. Sims, Bookkeeper Richard Ashbrook, and others in charge spared nothing to make the visitors comfortable, and their efforts were evidently appreciated.

The building is used as a warehouse from which to furnish supplies to neighboring cities. The meats handled by Armour are brought here from Chicago in refrigerated cars, and stored in the cold storage and sent out as ordered. Similar plants are being built at Cairo, Ill., and Jackson, Tenn.

Oldest Age of Stonehenge.

Julius Caesar bears witness to the astronomical learning of the Druids. Stonehenge is accepted as a solar temple by most archaeologists, and Sir Norman Lockyer has calculated its age on the hypothesis that it was built so that the priest at the altar would just perceive the solar rays at the summer solstice. Granting his hypothesis, it appears that the date was about 1,680 years before the Christian era—some thirty-six centuries ago.

FLOWER PARADE.

Many Will Enter the Lists for Carnival Honors.

Everything Furnished Free to Those who Will Take a Part.

The floral parade bids fair to eclipse anything ever seen here. The liberality of the committee in furnishing the paper free and the valuable assistance of Mrs. Whelan to every one has been the means of quite a large number of entries. The flower parade this year will differ in many respects from previous ones, in that there will be divisions this season and prizes offered for each class. A prize will be given the handsomest double team, one for the most beautiful single horse, for the prettiest pony or goat cart or novelty rig, for the most unique bicycle and for the best display by merchants.

This latter will be an entirely new feature and will prove one of the best means of advertising during the carnival. No merchant will be permitted to enter the parade except those decorating entirely with flowers. Even the signs on floats or vehicles used must be in flowers.

Quite a number of the prominent houses have agreed to enter as this manner of attracting the notice of the vast crowds will be new entirely and prettier and cheaper than the time-worn floats used heretofore. Any merchant not having been called on by the committee can get immediate attention by ringing up carnival headquarters. Mrs. Whelan is prepared to do the work on very short notice and work that cannot be surpassed.

The following are some of the entries but not all as several desire their names withheld at present:

Mrs. J. W. Tully, Mrs. Dr. Whitesides, Mrs. W. A. Davis, Miss Laura Sanders, Mrs. Joseph L. Friedman, Mrs. Jake Wallerstein, Miss Elizabeth Sinnott, Mrs. Black, Misses Terrell, Mrs. Chas. Mocoquot, Mrs. C. H. Sherrell, Mrs. Coleman, Mrs. Jos. Altman, Miss Ethel Bailey, Mrs. J. J. Read, Mrs. L. A. Lagomarsino, Jno. G. Behrhopf, Ed D. Gillen, Richard Rudy, Lloyd W. Robertson, R. E. Parrish, J. E. Robertson, Mrs. Jno. Rock, four bicycles, The Arcade, Louis Clark, Jake Biederman Gro. Co., Wm. Nagel, Rhodes-Burford.

Additional entries will be published as fast as they come in.

All persons not having gotten paper and instructions for making flowers will please call at headquarters for same as soon as possible.

A BIG DISPLAY.

Paine's Last Days of Pompeii May be Given Here a Week.

The Business Men Met this Morning and Will Decide this Evening.

Mr. O. E. Skipp, of New York, is at the Palmer house and this morning met a number of representative business men of Paducah at the hotel relative to bringing Paine's "Last Days of Pompeii" to Paducah for a week.

Mr. Skipp represents the company and uses over 100 people in the gigantic production. He requires a guarantee of $10,000 for the week's production, but the attraction is so great, and brings so many thousand people from surrounding districts to a city that the plan struck Paducah merchants favorably at once, and they think the prospects are good for its appearance here the last week in June.

A committee composed of Messrs. Charles Rieke, L. S. DuBois and Charles Weille was appointed to interview various business men, and another meeting will be held at 4 o'clock at which a decision will be reached.

The big spectacular production will be at Nashville the week previous to the time it is desired to have it here.

DWYER RESIGNS.

WILL LEAVE I. C. AND WORK FOR IRON MOUNTAIN.

Trainmaster R. H. Dwyer of the Paducah and Memphis division of the Illinois Central has resigned his position and will accept a similar one with the Iron Mountain, with headquarters in Arkansas. His resignation will take effect May 1st.

Mr. Oscar M. Sewell, a popular young conductor of the Illinois Central, formerly of this city but now running between Memphis and Cairo, will succeed him. Mr. Sewell has many friends here, who will be pleased to learn of his deserved promotion.

HURT BY A HAND CAR.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL EMPLOYEE TAKEN TO THE HOSPITAL TODAY.

W. A. Chester, an employee of the Illinois Central, was injured this morning a few miles out of Fulton while riding on a hand car. The car struck a bad piece of track and he fell off and under the wheels. The wheels caught his right foot and mashed and bruised it badly. He was brought to the city at noon and taken to the hospital for treatment. The injuries are not serious but will lay him up for several weeks.

Chronic constipation for seven years placed me in this terrible condition; during that time I did everything I heard of but never found any relief; such was my case until I began using CASCARET. UNITED STATES BUILDING IN SOAP

A fac-simile of the great United States Building at the World's Fair, St. Louis, 1903, is now on exhibition in the Eley Dry Goods Company's show window. It is an architectural wonder—built like a "fairy palace"—from tons of Royal Cuticle Soap—the pride of the world toilet soap. As an artistic display, it is a marvelous demonstration, and well worth coming miles to see, and will be the most remarkable soap bargain ever offered in America. The ever leading in furthering the interest of the people has won for our store much well-deserved popularity. Through our prominence in Paducah we have been selected and appointed as sole distributing agents for the Royal Soap Co., of Cincinnati, O., whose soaps have been the standard of excellence for nearly a quarter of a century. It is a wonderfully fine, dainty, medicated soap, soothing to the skin and beautifying to the complexion, and is sold upon its merits exclusively. More than five million families throughout the breadth and length of the land are today using ROYAL CUTICLE SOAP and will use no other. So much for the excellence of this soap. Regular price for Royal Cuticle Soap is 10 cents per cake, but for a limited time, acting as agents for the manufacturers, who desire to introduce the Royal Cuticle Soap in every home, we have the special privilege from the manufacturers to sell THREE CAKES FOR TEN CENTS, 40 cents per dozen, or $4.80 per gross. This gives us power to save money for all. It is so cheap it can be no cheaper, and so good it can be no better. It is within the reach of all.

ARNOLD STOCK COMPANY.

A Fine Company Now at "The Kentucky" in Repertoire.

Mr. Frank Wilstach, of the Viola Allen Company, Here Today—Dramatic Notes.

The Arnold Stock company opened a week's engagement in repertoire at The Kentucky last night to a small crowd "In Honor Bound." The company is well balanced and the specialties between acts are unusually good, consisting of singing, dancing, monologue, serpentine dancing, a musical team, and the phenomenal child entertainer. The entertainment is well worth double the admission price.

Mr. Frank Wilstach, in advance of Viola Allen, who will present "In the Palace of the King" at The Kentucky on May 8, was in the city today. Mr. Wilstach is a brother of Mr. Claxton Wilstach, manager of Miss Adelaide Thurston in "Sweet Clover," and of Paul Wilstach, who wrote "A Capital Comedy," which Mr. Tim Murphy presented here this season.

One of the members of the Dunbar-Lyall Stock company, which opens at La Belle Park next week, is Mr. Carl Carleton, who was the first manager of La Belle park theater when it was built several years ago. He has many friends here who will be pleased to welcome him back to Paducah.

AN EXCELLANT SHOWING.

EXAMINATION AT THE LUTHERAN PAROCHIAL SCHOOL.

Last week, Friday, the scholars of the Lutheran parochial school passed their first examination. Those present were well pleased with the progress the scholars have made the first seven months of the existence of the school. The teacher of the school, Prof. E. Schmidt, was highly complimented on his splendid training and discipline. It was refreshing to listen to the answers and recitations and the reading of the different classes. Aside from religion the scholars were examined in German reading and spelling, arithmetic, English reading and spelling, in penmanship, drawing, U. S. history, geography and civil government. Some fifteen minutes were devoted to each branch. Though this school is first and above all intended for the children of Lutheran parents, it is patronized also by parents who are not connected with the church. The latter mentioned belonging to our best class of citizens and it is especially pleasing to note that they are perfectly satisfied with the results achieved so far.

The school is located on South Fourth street in the rear of the Lutheran church. Those wishing to give this school a trial may apply to Prof. E. Schmidt, 618 Husbands street.

WAS SATISFIED ANYHOW.

The Mad Stone Wouldn't Stick, So the Dog Wasn't Mad.

He May Have Been Angry, But That's all —Christian County Man's Pilgrimage.

Edgar Sharber of near Hopkinsville, Christian county, is one of those who believe in the efficacy of a "mad-stone."

A dog supposed to be mad, and undoubtedly somewhat angry, judging from its actions, bit him Sunday on the right leg.

He journeyed as soon as he could get a train all the way to Paducah to have Captain Joe Fowler's mad stone applied, and while the poison was doubtless willing to be extracted, the mad stone was indisposed, and Edgar remained here nearly all day yesterday trying to get it to stick to his wound. Finally he was convinced that the dog was not mad, or the stone would have adhered, and left for home greatly relieved in mind.

So far as could be learned, everybody is satisfied except the dog, who got killed as a result of the harmless little pastime of masticating Mr. Sharber's limb.

FIRST SHOOT.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL GUN CLUB HAS AN ENJOYABLE CONTEST.

The first shoot of the newly organized Illinois Central Gun club took place yesterday at the grounds south of the new passenger depot, and despite the weather there was a large crowd out. Several members of the Paducah Gun club accepted invitations to be present.

The members of the new club have fine traps and good grounds and expect to rapidly improve in their shooting. The score yesterday was:
